LIPPER LEADERS RATING (OVERALL)

Total Return	Consistent Return	Preservation	Lipper Leaders Key
5	5	2	Lowest ① Highest ⑤

The Lipper Leaders Ratings System is a set of tools that guide investors and their advisors to select funds that suit individual investment styles and goals. It uses investor-centred criteria to deliver a simple, clear description of a fund's success in meeting certain goals, such as preserving capital or building wealth through consistent strong returns.

Lipper Leader ratings are derived from highly sophisticated formulas that analyse funds against clearly defined criteria. Each fund is ranked against its peers based on the metric used (such as Total Return or Expense), and then the top 20% of funds in that ranking receive the Lipper Leader designation. Lipper Leaders measures are not predictive of future performance, but they do provide context and perspective for making knowledgeable fund investment decisions.

FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTARY

US equity markets took a breather in March, with some unwinding of consensus positions such as the view of higher US dollar and higher US long term interest rates, which resulted in a bearish outlook for EM currencies. The US dollar weakened post the US Federal rate hike mid-month. Crude oil prices declined sharply as reported high oil inventory and rising US rig counts renewed concerns of over supply of oil, despite the agreed cut in production by Organisation of the Petroleum Exporting Countries ("OPEC") and non-OPEC countries. China held their National People's Congress where Premier Li reviewed the country's progress made in 2016 and laid out the targets for 2017, focusing on maintaining growth stability, job creation, safeguarding financial security, among others, with an expected Gross Domestic Product ("GDP") growth target of 6.5% for 2017. By the end of the month, US President Trump failed to push through his election promise of getting rid of Obama-care, and in the UK Prime Minister Theresa May triggered Article 50 to exit the European Union.

Malaysian equities performed positively in tandem with regional markets. Saudi Arabia's King's visit to Malaysia helped kick off the positive sentiment in March as the King announced Saudi Aramco's joint venture with Petronas in RAPID. During the month the media speculated over a potential merger between Axiata and Telekom Malaysia. Axiata's associate company, Idea Cellular then proposed to merge with Vodafone India given the stiffer competition they face. Excitement in the e-commerce sector in Malaysia heightened with the announcement by Jack Ma of Alibaba, to establish an e-commerce hub in the new Digital Free-Trade Zone ("DFTZ") in Malaysia Airport's Aerotropolis in Sepang. The Kuala Lumpur Composite Index ("KLCI") ended the month higher at 2.73% mom to close at 1,740.09 points. The broader market gained 3.44% outperforming the KLCI. All sectors registered positive performances during the month, with the best performing sector being Technology (+16.9%), benefiting from the excitement around the announcement of the DFTZ, and Construction (+6.84%). The worst performing sector was Industrial (+0.7%) and Plantation (+1.49%). The FTSE Bursa Malaysia ("FBM") Small Cap Index gained 8.35%. Average value traded on Bursa in March was up 55% mom to RM3.52bn, with increased participation by foreign investors.
