

DKSH Corporate Shared Services Center Sdn Bhd (CSSC)

Senior Specialist, SAP Technical - PI

Department: SAP Support & Delivery

Location: Technology Park Malaysia, Bukit Jalil

Available positions: 1 (permanent)

Responsibilities:

- Design, develop and implement integration solutions and enhancements using SAP PI based on business requirements
- Contribute as key member of project teams that implement and rollout integration and interfaces using SAP PI between DSKH business operation with external business particulars as well as between different solution applications
- Work closely with other process module teams as well as end users to understand, confirm and translate processes into interface configuration
- Deliver services of high professional level, with quality and meet customer's expectation
- Resolve technical issues
- Support interface performance tuning and reusability
- Provide design input to continuously improve on the technical and integration components of DKSH SAP Global Template
- Establish model and template for integrations and interfaces that are based on Service Oriented Architecture (SOA) concept of global, standard and reusable

Job requirement

- Bachelor or Diploma in Information and Communication Technology or related fields.
- At least 3 years relevant SAP experience. Candidate with PI certification are desired.
- Hands on experience in interface project implementation, end users business processes and Technical subjects, with at least 2 end to end project full cycle.
- Possess understanding of EDI and integration concept and configuration.
- Essential skills and knowledge in EDI interface standard, middleware integration (preferably SAP PI), ALE/DOC programming and troubleshooting.
- Able to communicate effectively with all level of staff, vendor/suppliers, orally and/or in writing both in English.
- Analytical, responsible, innovative and able to work under minimum supervision.